Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 10-14, 16-27, 29-37, 39-44 are allowed.
2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

- Claims 15, 28 and 45 have been canceled as they have been withdrawn as nonelected without traverse.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant has three independent claims: 10, 23 and 36. Claim 36 is the broadest and requires a user selecting a hyperlink which is part of a sequence of browsing links/resources. The claim also requires targeting an advertisement to a particular range within the browsing sequence, and selecting and displaying the targeted ad when the user's selected linked resource is displayed, where the selected link is within the targeted range. While Culliss teaches returning an ordered list of search hits as links, the links further including targeted advertising – the Board has determined that Culliss targets the advertising to the URLs/content of the selected resource rather than the position of the linked resource within the browsing sequence of returned hits/links.

Art Unit: 3622

Claim 10 is best understood in combination with figure 1. Claim 10 requires reading variables within a script of a resource from a client, the resource including plural hyperlinks and the variables being specific to each hyperlinked resource. The variables are stored in a cookie before the user makes a selection. After the user selects a hyperlink, an advertisement is displayed with the requested linked resource, the ad being targeted based upon the associated cookie variable. Again, this is not properly taught by Culliss according to the Board. Claim 36 has similar limitations as the crucial limitations of claim 10.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

- WO 99/39281 to Refuah et al has been cited as a typical example of a search engine that returns a list of hits as links, whereby targeted advertising may also be provided, the targeting being based upon the user, user habits and/or the content of the linked pages.
